About me

I am a home decor blogger and content creator. I primarily share ideas and inspiration on my blog, marlydice.com, and on Instagram, to create a casually elegant home. I would describe my home style as European transitional. I love incorporating bold contrast and neutrals in my home.

Since its inception in 2017, my blog, and social media accounts, have grown to attract and cultivate an engaged readership of home enthusiasts.
